About this workbook

Introduction

This workbook has been written for students who are planning to sit either the general training or the academic modules of the IELTS exam. It covers some of the main vocabulary points that you will need for, or come across in, the listening, reading, writing and speaking sections of the exam.

We hope that you find the modules in this book useful and that the vocabulary you acquire will help you to achieve the grade you want in the IELTS.

Good luck!

Structure of the IELTS Workbook

Each vocabulary area is presented in the form of a self-contained module with task-based activities which present each vocabulary item in a real context.

- Pages 1-48 focus on general vocabulary items which can be used in all aspects of your English. Some of these are relevant to specific tasks in the IELTS exam (for example, describing how something works, writing a letter or describing a table).
- Pages 49-95 focus on topic-specific vocabulary areas which may be required in the exam (for example, education, business and industry or global problems). Each module consists of three tasks: the first two present vocabulary items in context, and the third gives you the opportunity to review the vocabulary in the form of a gap-fill exercise.

Using the IELTS Workbook

You should not go through the modules mechanically. It is better to choose areas that you are unfamiliar with, or areas that you feel are of specific interest or importance to yourself.

Vocabulary Record Sheet

Remember that you should keep a record of new words and expressions that you learn, and review these from time to time so that they become an active part of your vocabulary. There is a vocabulary record sheet at the back of the book which you can photocopy as many times as you like and use to build up your own personal vocabulary bank.

Extending Your Vocabulary

Also remember that there are other methods of acquiring new vocabulary. For example, you should read as much as possible from a different variety of authentic reading materials (books, newspapers, magazines, etc).

Using an English dictionary

To help you learn English, you should use an English dictionary that can clearly define words, provide information about grammar and give sample sentences to show how words are used in context. You can use any good learner's English dictionary with this workbook, but it has been written using the material in the English Dictionary for Students (ISBN 1-901659-06-2), published by Peter Collin Publishing (www.petercollin.com).

International English Language Testing System (IELTS)

This workbook has been written to help you improve your vocabulary when working towards the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) examination. The IELTS English examination is administered by the University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate, The British Council and IDP Education Austrailia. For futher information, visit the www.ucles.org.uk website.

Describing & analysing tables

A. Look at the four tables below. These show demographic trends in four different countries between 1996 and 2000. The numbers on the left and right of each table show the number of people in millions. Using the information in these tables, match sentences 1-13 on the next page with the appropriate country. Use the words and expressions in bold to help you.

Describing & analysing tables

- 1. In which two countries was there a considerable discrepancy between married and single people between 1996 and 1998?
- 2. In which country was there a constant and considerable discrepancy between married and single people over the five-year period?
- 3. In which country was there a sudden and noticeable difference between those under 18 and those over 65 in 1998?
- 4. In which country did the number of under-18s rise dramatically between 1996 and 2000?
- 5. In which country did the number of under-18s increase slightly between 1996 and 2000?
- 6. In which country did the number of over-65s go up sharply between 1996 and 1998?
- 7. In which country did the number of married people decline over the five-year period?
- 8. In which country did the number of deaths decrease significantly between 1996 and 1999?
- 9. In which country was there a slight decline in the number of married people between 1998 and 1999?
- 10. In which country was there a sharp drop in the number of under-18s between 1997 and 1998?
- 11. In which country was there a slight reduction in the number of deaths over the five-year period?
- 12. In which country was there a significant increase in the number of deaths between 1998 and 2000?
- 13. In which country did the number of deaths remain constant over the five-year period?
- B. Now look at the table below, which shows the changes in economic activity in a town over a period of five years. The figures on the left and right show the number of people involved in these activities, in thousands. Write your own sentences to describe the situation in the town regarding the number of:
- 1. People employed in industry between 1996 and 2000.
- 2. People employed in retail between 1996 and 2000.
- 3. People employed in public services between 1999 and 2000.
- 4. People employed in tourism between 1996 and 2000.
- 5. Unemployed between 1998 and 2000.
- 6. People employed in industry compared with those in tourism in 1996.
- 7. People employed in industry between 1998 and 1999.

How something works

A. Look at these sentences and decide which object is being described in each one. Use the words in bold to help you. You will find the objects hidden in the word grid at the bottom of the page.

- The most important part of this object is a strip of two different metals, one on top of the other. As they heat up, both metals expand, but one does it faster than the other. The strip bends and connects with a switch, which turns off the power supply. When the strip cools down, the metals contract and the switch is disconnected. (1 word)
- This object has several component parts, most of which are made of plastic. A disc inserted into the object spins quickly. At the same time a thin beam of light strikes the disc and converts digital symbols into sounds. These sounds can be increased or decreased in volume by means of a button or dial.
 (3 words)
- 3. Liquid and gas are compressed in a hard metal tube. This can be released by pushing or squeezing a button which opens a valve. When the liquid-gas combination leaves the tube and is mixed with oxygen, it rapidly expands. (1 word)
- 4. This object is mainly made of aluminium. As it moves forward, air flows over two horizontal sections. As it accelerates, a vacuum is formed over the horizontal sections and the object is pulled into the air by the force of this vacuum. (1 word)
- 5. This object consists of two main parts; one is made mainly of plastic and metal, the other is made mainly of glass. Light enters the glass section and a small door in the device opens up when a button is pressed. At the same time, a smaller window called an aperture adjusts itself to control the amount of light. The light is then absorbed by a sheet of plastic coated in a special chemical. An image is formed and this can then be processed and developed into a two-dimensional paper-based object. (1 word)
- 6. A sharp blade inside a plastic container rotates very quickly. It chops or grinds anything it touches, which we can then use to produce soup, sauces and dressing. (2 words)
- 7. This is a very simple object which originated in China. A small piece of paper is lit with a match. It burns away until the flame ignites the chemical compound inside a cardboard tube. The result is a display of light and colour. (1 word)

- 3. You recently stayed in a hotel and were very unhappy with the service you received. You are now writing to the manager. What do you say?
 - A. I had a horrible time at your hotel recently. B. I would like to say that I am unhappy about your hotel. (C.) I would like to complain about the service I received at your hotel recently.
- 4. You have sent a letter of application to a college, together with your curriculum vitae which the college requested. What do you say in the letter to explain that your curriculum vitae is attached?

 A. You asked for my curriculum vitae, so here it is.

 B. As you can see, I've enclosed my curriculum vitae.

 (C) As you requested, I enclose my curriculum vitae.
- 5. You have applied for a job, but you would like the company to send you more information. What do you say?
 - (A) I would be grateful if you would send me more information. B. I want you to send me more information. C. Send me some more information, if you don't mind.
- 6. In a letter you have written to a company, you tell them that you expect them to reply. What do you say?

 A. Write back to me soon, please. B. Please drop me a line soon.

 C I look forward to hearing from you soon.
- 7. In a letter you have written, you want the recipient to do something and are thanking them in advance of their action. What do you say?
 - (A) Thank you for your attention in this matter. B. Thanks for doing something about it. C. I am gratified that you will take appropriate action.
- 8. The company you work for has received an order from another company and you are writing to them to acknowledge the order and let them know when you can deliver. What do you say?

 A. About the order you sent on 12 January for...

 B. I would like to remind you of the order you sent on 12 January for...

 C. I refer to your order of 12 January
- 9. In a letter, you explain that the recipient can contact you if they want more information. What do you say?

 A. Give me a call if you want some more information.

 In a letter, you explain that the recipient can contact you if they want more information. (B) If you would like any more information, why not get in touch?
- 10. You began a letter with the recipient's name (e.g., Dear Mr. Perrin). How do you end the letter?

 A. Yours faithfully (B) Yours sincerely C. Best wishes
- 11. You did not begin the letter with the recipient's name (see number 1 above). How do you end the letter?

 (A) Yours faithfully

 (B. Yours sincerely

 (C. Best wishes

B. Look at these sentences and decide if they are true or false.

- 1. Formal letters are always longer than informal letters.
- 2. In a formal letter it is acceptable to use colloquial English, slang and idioms.
- 3. In a formal letter it is acceptable to use contractions (e.g., I've instead of I have)
- 4. In a formal letter you should include your name and address at the top of the page.
- 5. In a formal letter, you should always write the date in full (e.g., 1 April 2000 and not 1/4/00).
- 6. In a formal letter, you should always put your full name (e.g., James Harcourt and not J. Harcourt) after your signature at the bottom of the letter.
- 7. Formal letters do not need to be broken into paragraphs. It is acceptable to write them as one continuous paragraph.

Presenting an argument

A. Read the text below, in which somebody is trying to decide whether to go straight to university from school, or spend a year travelling around the world. Put their argument into the correct order, using the key words and expressions in italics to help you. The first one and last one have been done for you.

- A. (1) I'm really in two minds about what to do when I leave school. Should I go straight to university or should I spend a year travelling around the world?
- B. It is often said that knowledge is the key to power, and I cannot disagree with this.
- C. On the one hand, I would experience lots of different cultures.
- D. Unfortunately, another point is that if I spent a year travelling I would need a lot of money.
- E. And I'm not alone in this opinion. Many consider a sound career and a good salary to be an important goal.
- F. However, it could be argued that I would also meet lots of interesting people while I was travelling.
- G. Secondly, if I go straight to university, I'll learn so many things that will help me in my future life.
- H. First of all, there are so many benefits of going straight to university.
- But I believe that it would be easy to make a bit while I was travelling, giving English lessons or working in hotels and shops.
- J. Moreover, I'll be able to take part in the social activities that the university offers, and meet lots of new friends who share the same interests.
- K. The most important point is that the sooner I get my qualifications, the quicker I'll get a job and start earning.
- L. Nevertheless, these inconveniences would be an inevitable part of travelling and would be greatly outweighed by the other advantages.
- M. In my opinion, starting work and making money is one of the most important things in life.
- N. On the other hand, I could end up suffering from culture shock, homesickness and some strange tropical diseases.
- Furthermore, if I spent a year travelling, I would learn more about the world.
- P. (16) All right, I've made my mind up. Now, where's my nearest travel agency?

B. Using the key words and expressions in italic from the last exercise, present an argument for one of the following issues:

- 1. A government's main priority is to provide education for its people.
- 2. The only way to save the environment is for governments to impose strict quotas on the energy we use (for example, by restricting car ownership, limiting the water we use).

Phrasal verbs

Phrasal verbs (a verb and a preposition / prepositions combined to form a new expression) are a large and very important area of English vocabulary which many students ignore. There are a lot of them, and many phrasal verbs can have more than one meaning.

Below, on the left, you will see a list of many of the verbs which are used to make phrasal verbs (the most commonly used ones are in bold). On the right you will see the prepositions which can work with these verbs to form phrasal verbs. Use a dictionary to find out which verb / preposition combinations are possible and complete the table at the bottom of the page.

You should try to build up a bank of the phrasal verbs which you are unfamiliar with and which you think are important. On the next page, there is a record sheet which you can photocopy as many times as you like, make a note of phrasal verbs on, and add to your files.

Don't forget that some phrasal verbs use more than one preposition (for example, We ran up against some problems)

| Verb | Prepositions which can be added to form phrasal verbs | Preposition |

For over fifty years, the people of Britain have relied on the 1 ___ to make sure they have adequate health services. But now the National Health Service is sick. Government 2_ are forcing hospitals to close, and waiting lists for treatment are getting longer. Under such circumstances, it is no surprise that more people are turning to private (but expensive) healthcare. For some, however, there are alternatives. They are turning their back on modern pills, tablets and other ______ . It seems paradoxical, but in an age of microchips and high technology, (the old-fashioned cures that our grandparents relied on) is making a comeback. Consider these case studies: Maude is 76 and has been suffering from 6_______ for almost ten years. "The inflammation in my joints was almost unbearable, and my doctor referred me to a 7_____ at the London Hospital. I was told that I needed 8______, but would need to wait for at least two years before I could have the operation. In desperation, I started having massage sessions. To my surprise, these were very 9______, and while they didn't cure the disorder, they did relieve it to some extent". Ron is 46. His high-powered city job was responsible for a series of 10_ illnesses, and the drugs he took did little to relieve the nervous strain. "I read about treatments which involve the whole person rather than the individual symptoms, but I had always been sceptical about ____ . However, my friend recommended a dietician who advised me that part of my _-related. Basically, the foods I was eating were contributing to my disorder. She gave me a list of foods that would provide the right 13____ to keep me in good health. At the same time, she recommended a more ______ lifestyle - running, swimming, that kind of thing. I'm a bit of a couch potato, and 15_ ____ lifestyle I had lived was compounding the problem. Now I feel great!" So is there still a place in our lives for modern medicine? While it is true that some infections and viruses may be prevented by resorting to alternative medicine, more serious illnesses such as 17 _____need more drastic measures. We do need our health service at these times, and we shouldn't stop investing in its future. But we mustn't forget that for some common illnesses, the cure may lie in the past.

Men and women

Task 2: Use the words and expressions in the box to complete the conversation below.

child-rearing gender roles male counterparts breadwinner • stereotypes • household management • role division battle of the sexes Sex Discrimination Act social convention Cleaning and cooking are a woman's job. After all, men are no Chris: at 1. _ What rubbish! Thank goodness the 2. ______ exists to prevent men from taking advantage of women. Well, let's face it, in the workplace women never do as well as their 3. ______. And I suppose you think that women are only good for changing babies' nappies and other tedious aspects of 4. _____ Chris: No, but I do believe that in a modern household there should be a clearly-defined . Men are good at DIY, for example. Most women aren't. And I'll always believe that it's the man who should be the 6. ______, providing food and shelter for his family. Terry: Well, all I can say is that I'm glad your ideas of 7. _____ are not shared by most people. Nonsense! A lot of people believe in traditional 8. ______; the man goes out to Chris: work, the woman stays at home. It's as simple as that. Men at work and women at home? Come on dear, those are such typical 9. ___ With people like you around, the 10. ______ will always continue. Chris: Oh, shut up dad.

Don't forget to keep a record of the words and expressions that you have learnt, review your notes from time to time and try to use new vocabulary items whenever possible.

Terry: Sorry Christine, but it's an issue I feel strongly about.

Men and women

Task 3: Now read this essay and complete the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2.

'Men and women are, and always will be, different in the way they behave and are treated'. Do you agree with this statement? A totally (1) society, in which sexual (2) between men and women is the norm, is still a long way off. This is certainly the case if you watch television, where men are often portrayed as the (3)______, bringing money home to the wife, who is usually depicted as the (4)______, prone to extreme emotions and temper tantrums. But is this really the case? Is it still fair to create (5)_____such as this? After all, as more women go out to work and more men stay at home to look after the house and the kids, it is quite clear that so-called (6)_____are merging and disappearing. Take the office workplace as an example. For years, businesses and companies were ______ - the directors, managers and businessmen were always men, the secretaries and personal assistants always female. This was probably because men have traditionally been seen as more (8)______, more able to deal with the cut-and-thrust of business. But now women are proving that they can be equally tough, while simultaneously being more (9)_____ and caring. In fact, in many ways, women are more than men, a vital aspect of modern business where you are expected to do more than just one job. And thanks to the (11)______, women are paid the same as men. It would appear that, in many cases, the (12)______is a dying breed. At home, too, there is less evidence of (13)______ . It is no longer the woman who does all the cooking and cleaning and (14)______ . Such (15) _____ is now often shared equally. (16) _____ no longer requires the woman to stay indoors all day while the man stays out until all hours. Whether this is due to the struggle by the (17)_____ in the 1960s and 1970s, or whether it is due to a natural shift in attitudes is unclear. What is clear, however, is that women no longer feel they need to be regarded as (18)______ , the underdogs in a (19)______with their ______ . In fact, many believe that in the (21)______ , it is women who have come out on top. Don't forget to keep a record of the words and expressions that you have learnt, review your notes from time to time and try to use new vocabulary items whenever possible.

Note: When we describe how an object works and there is no person or other agent involved in our description, we use the active voice ('Light enters the glass object and a small door opens up'), When there is a person involved in the process, we usually use the passive voice ('This can be released...' '...a button is pressed'). This is because the action or process is more important than the person doing it.

1. advise = advice

Many English words can be nouns and verbs without a change in spelling. However, some words which end in -ice when they are nouns end with -ise when they become verbs. For example, practice (noun) = practise (verb)

2. acheive = achieve

A lot of English words use a combination of i and e. The order of these letters can be confusing.

In most words where these letters are pronounced as ee (as in cheese), the i comes before the e (for example, siege, thief, field, belief, piece) unless the letters are preceded by the letter c (for example, ceiling, conceit, receive, deceive).

However, not all words follow this rule. Exceptions include caffeine, protein, neither, either and seize.

When the letters are pronounced ay (as in hate), the e comes before the i (for example, weigh, veil, neighbour, eight).

There are other words which must be learned individually. These are: foreign, forfeit, height, heir, leisure, their, surfeit, sovereign.

3. aquire = acquire

A lot of English words contain silent letters - in other words, a letter which we do not pronounce when we say the word. There are very few rules to tell you which is which, so you must learn each word individually or use a dictionary to check the spelling of a word if you are not sure.

Some common examples of silent letters include:

Silent A: February parliament marriage

Silent B: comb bomb womb doubt

Silent C: conscience scene discipline scissors

Silent D: Wednesday handsome

Silent G: campaign design

Silent H: ghost school vehicle rhythm

Silent I: business hygiene nuisance

Silent N: autumn column condemn

Silent T: listen mortgage

Silent U: biscuit colleague (which also has a silent e at the end) guarantee guess

Silent W: answer whole

Silent GH: though thorough weigh height

4. swimming = swimming

We double the last letter of single-syllable words ending with a single vowel and a single consonant when we add a suffix (e.g., -ing):

swim - swimming run - running dip - dipped

We usually do the same thing if a two-syllable word is stressed on the second syllable:

begin - beginning regret - regrettable prefer - preferring

We do not double the last letter in the following cases:

- when a word ends with w, x or y
- when the suffix begins with a consonant (e.g., bad badly)
- when a word ends with I and the suffix -ly is added (e.g., playful playfully)
- when two vowels come before the final consonant (e.g., weep weeping)

5. thiefs = thieves

Most nouns are regular. This means that we add an s to make them plural (e.g., car - cars). However, some nouns are irregular - we either do not add an s to the word to make it plural or we add s plus some other letters.

In nouns which end with a consonant and y, the y changes to i and we add s:

party - parties baby - babies worry - worries

In nouns which end with s, sh, tch and x, we add es:

bus - buses dish - dishes watch - watches box - boxes

In some nouns which end in f or fe, we replace the f with a v and add es.

calf - calves half - halves knife - knives life - lives wife - wives

In some words which end with o, we add es.

cargo - cargoes echo - echoes hero - heroes

Some words do not change at all.

fish, deer, sheep

And some words have their own individual rules:

man - men child - children woman - women person - people

6. hopeing = hoping

We drop the e from a word when a suffix which begins with a vowel (e.g., -ing) is added to a word which ends in a consonant plus a silent e:

Note:

Most large towns and cities in Britain have 'Park and Ride' schemes. These are large car parks outside city centres where drivers can park their car, usually for free. They can then take a bus into the city centre.

Distances and speed limits in Britain are in miles or miles per hour (1 mile = 1.6 kilometres). The maximum speed limit in Britain is 60mph on single-lane roads outside towns, or 70mph on dual-carriageways or motorways. In most towns and cities, the maximum speed limit is usually 20 or 30 mph. Drivers who are caught speeding can face penalties ranging from a fine to imprisonment, depending on how fast they are driving and where. They can also have their driving licence suspended.

Drink driving is considered a very serious offence. Offenders automatically have their driving licence suspended for at least a year, will normally receive a fine and may go to prison.
